

Leading in Today's Workplace 1:1 Coaching Sprint

The Leading in Today's Workplace One-to-One Coaching Sprint is designed to prepare leaders to lead in the changing workplace without an extensive time commitment.

The Coaching Sprint includes the following participant steps:

1

Choose and complete an assessment

Choose from one of Change Coaches' Leadership + Team Effectiveness Assessments: LEAD, TEAM, or ALIGN.

2

Create a development plan

Using the resources and coaching provided by Change Coaches, as well as the insights gained from the assessment, leaders will be able to build a personalized development plan.

3

Participate in five coaching sessions

This coaching sprint will involve five one-hour coaching sessions. One of these sessions may include members of the team, if desired.

4

Prepare to lead in the changing workplace

The goal of the coaching sprint is to guide clients in preparing themselves to engage as a leader in the ever-changing workplace. All participants will have access to our resource library.

Benefits of participating in a Change Coaches 1:1 Coaching Sprint

Expert advising from our credentialed and experienced coaches.

Access to the Change Coaches Resource Library, with additional resources, video trainings, and live events.

Insights gained through the assessment process and 1:1 coaching, completed in 2-3 months instead of a year commitment.
